

De Kalb, Nov. 23, 1816

Isaac Cooper

Dear Sir,

I enclose you a copy of accounts with your family. And to lay before you more fully the monies recd. & expended. I give you also a copy of all other accounts.

Mr. Daubenny insists that interest be paid him & his family on the balance due them, from the time they accrued. You will observe that none is charged you. I presume must be if required.

As soon as my accounts are settled the items of which I have the necessary vouchers, I will hand over to Mr. Pomeroy your papers.

Yours etc.

John Fine

Due L. S. Daubeny	$365.16
C. C. Daubeny	601.18
Fred. DePeyster	104.86
John R. Murray	78.28
Wm Ogden owes	$79.43
Henry Waddle	25.85

1178.33

Money owed on acct of the New York Proprietors $2620

Cooperstown near one half                    300.00