

De Kalb, June 24th 1809

Sir,

In calculating on the expense of building my gristmill I shall fall short fifty Dollr at least, and if you as my only aid at present, could consistently comply with my request so far as to furnish me the above sum by the first day of Sept.. It would be an unspeakable favor done to Sir.

Charles Borland

Wm. Cooper Esq.